The applicant representative agreed that claim 1 has been overcome by the prior art. Applicant disagreed with the examiner's argument regarding the interpretation of claim 10 and what the prior art of record discusses and how the prior art does teach the claimed steps of claim 10. Applicant does not agree that the prior art teaches multiple "content providers" that have multiple aliases associated with each content provider's web site. No agreement was reached and applicant's representative indicated they would submit an after final amendment.
